

Problem Statement :

Often when entering Gamecock Park during busy hours there are next to no seats available leaving one seatless or having to sit with someone else.

Details:

When entering Gamecock Park during lunch or dinnertime there is almost a guarantee that there will be no seats available, this has been a problem since almost the beginning of school. This is most likely due to the fact that Russel house is the main hub of food for most students.